Arkansas Arts Center Announces New Library Hours

(LITTLE ROCK, AR) – The Elizabeth Prewitt Taylor Library at the Arkansas Arts Center will be open to the public on Tuesday and Wednesday from 10 a.m. – 3 p.m.

The Library is a non-circulating research library and is the primary art history and resource center in the state. The Library collections include 5,000 volumes and more than 50 periodical titles on everything from art criticism to art history.

The Arkansas Arts Center Library is affiliated with the Central Arkansas Library System through a cooperative agreement that adds the Arts Center book collection to the CALS online computer catalog. The Library's collections are also accessible through card files and other indexes. The librarian is available to assist with research requests, and appointments can be arranged.

For more information or to make an appointment with the librarian, call 501-372-4000 or visit www.arkarts.com.
